Since 1964, we have dealt with Guatemalan Art and we would love to share our passion and expertise with you! Four generations have built what we like to call, the "Casa de Artes Knowledge".
Our goal is to offer a satisfying experience for the discerning shopper. We have the richest choice of rare and unique Guatemalan Items, both new and old.
"The difference is the quality, uniqueness and background of our pieces." We are recognized worldwide, were featured and credited in multiple publications from respected Collectors, Experts and Museums. So, why risk your investment in Guatemalan Art by going elsewhere?
